

Audio Interview with a co-worker of Kevin:

But, you know you get sucked in to the atmosphere of an office. And I find it very interesting and curious and in no way trying to make myself sound important that the blow up happened the week I was not there... I'd like to come back to VQR they said they can get me a job comparable but I don't think there is another job, and I love my job. I can do Kevin's job and I can probably do Kevin's job better than Kevin did, and please I don't want to speak ill of Kevin, but he was not always terribly efficient. I could work with you – tell me what you need me to do – I'd be happy to do it.
